Caravaggio - A Life Sacred and Profane . Caravaggio's art is made from darkness and light. His pictures present spotlit moments of extreme and often agonised human experience. A man is decapitated in his bedchamber, blood spurting from a deep gash in his neck. A man is assassinated on the high altar of a church. Faces are brightly illuminated.

Caravaggio is a fascinating man because we see him mostly through his art, like Marlowe we are fascinated by the aspects of both the rogue and the gentleman. This book is the work of a scholar and captures the age and milieu of Caravaggio- the intrigues of the various power realms in Italy, the contrasts of the Counter Reformation- Art and Inquisition, the conflict between palace and street.
