How do we
sustain agency
and identity
amidst the frailty of age? What role

does care play
in this process?
Pushing forward
new sociological theory, this book explores
the theoretical
and practical issues raised by
age and
infirmary. It begins with a
theoretical
examination of the fourth age,

interrogating
notions of
agency, identity
and personhood,
as well as the
impact of
frailty,
abjection and
'othering'. It
then applies
this analysis to issues of care.
