This diary is about a young girl named Rachel who is on a journey with her family on the Oregon Trail to California. They have packed up and left their friends and family in Illinois and set out on this wild and crazy adventure. Rachel's grandfather gave her this journal to write in while ma and pa are driving the team of animals.

Rachel Joy Scott was an American student and the first victim of the Columbine High School massacre, in which 11 other students and a teacher were also murdered by Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold, who then committed suicide. Scott's belief in Christianity and the disputed circumstances of her death have led to her being remembered by groups of evangelical Christians as a Christian martyr. She was posthumously the subject and co-writer of several books and the inspiration for
