~~Book Review: Storms of my Grandchildren~~

This is a review of James Hansen's 2009 book "Storms of My Grandchildren". James Hansen is the most respected climate scientist in the world. He is naturally shy and avoids publicity but decided to write this, his only book, after the birth of a grandchild. He wanted his grandchild to know later in life that his grandfather had done everything he could to warn the world.

'Storms of My Grandchildren' is a little outdated, published in 2009, and a lot has happened on the climate scene during the last decade. At the time of writing the book, Dr Hansen talks of an atmospheric CO<sub>2</sub> concentration of 387 ppm (parts per million), and discusses how it cannot surpass 450 ppm, let alone ideally being below 350 ppm.
